From:	ehud barak <ehbarak1@gmail.com>
To:	Fegel Gary <gary@fegel.com>
CC:
Date:	Sun, 8/25/2013 8:43:35 PM
Subject:	Re: Kaymera

Hi Gary
Probably for the Founders it is not mainly an "Ego" issue with the two of us but genuine feel that together we cast a too big shadow in the room. Try to be soft on style when you talk to them and extract as much as possible at this stage on content.

Sent from my iPhone

On Aug 23, 2013, at 18:35, Fegel Gary wrote:

> sounds good¡..
> On 23. Aug .2013, at 15:29, ehud barak wrote:
>
>> Thx. Good. Within this framework Y. Pecht is relevant as well (NSO consultancy). I believe he will be supportive as well. Won't be easy for Founders to reject recommendation of both CEO's.
>> I've called this morning the two CEOs separately re certain R&D technical follow up questions. They seemed to be really interested.
>> Best >> EB
>> Sent from my iPhone
>>
>> On Aug 23, 2013, at 15:10, Fegel Gary wrote:
>>
>>> Hi Ehud
>>> quick update:
>>>
>>> - spoke to all the guys separately and explained what deal "I think I can agree with Ehud". I said it's a package deal (chairmanship, shares, NSO consultancy and at least half of the USD 3m investment).
>>> - Avi fully supports the package , Omri and Shalev are unsure. I think the main problem is "ego".
>>> - I have a conf call with all of them together on sunday evening.
>>>
>>> keep you posted.
>>> shabbat shalom
>>> Gary
>